

Danny Chapman

Passionate about building handcrafted digital solutions that work for government and citizens alike.

Experience

Director of Design NIC 2013

Creative leadership role for the nation's largest provider of digital government services. Creative director of NIC's federal, state and local government engagements. Responsible for design, brand development, front-end coding, as well as strategic direction for future initiatives.

2012 Presidential Innovation Fellow The White House

2011

2010

2009

Member of the inaugural class of White House Presidential Innovation Fellows. Team member on Project MyUSA charged with reinventing the online relationship between citizens and their government.

Creative Director 2.0 RI Interactive 2008

Responsible for the RI.gov brand. Provided creative direction for several high-profile NIC engagements including application development for New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware.

2007

2006

2005

2004 Creative Director RI Interactive

Responsible for design and user experience of over fifty government sites and applications for the State of Rhode Island.

Product and Marketing Design eCamp 2003

Office management, customer support and software training. Designed print and electronic marketing materials.

Education

Hamilton College

Bachelor of Arts, 2002

Art History, departmental honors

Alexander Hamilton's List:
Excellence in Writing

Rhode Island School of Design

Summer 2001, Winter 2006

Graphic Design I, Flash

Awards

40 Under Forty

(2013)

Providence Business News

Best of the Web

(2006, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012)

Center for Digital Government

Silver Award for Government

(2009, 2011)

Davey Awards

Outstanding Achievement, Government

(2009, 2010, 2011, 2012)

Interactive Media Award

Skills

HTML / CSS

Javascript

Content Strategy

UX

UI

Print

@dannychapman

dannychapman

dannychapman.com